

SEXUALITY & QUEER STUDIES MINOR

The Sexuality & Queer Studies Minor explores interdisciplinary scholarship on lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender identities and histories, as well as queer and emerging identities. You'll examine the emerging field of queer theory and choose from electives that cover gender in the context of popular culture, health, communication and more.

This minor is an excellent complement to most majors. It prepares students to be leaders in community organizing, nonprofit organizations, education, social services, youth development, entrepreneurship, and new industries.

Learn more at ewu.edu/gwss

EWU's Sexuality & Queer Studies minor is 20 credits.

REQUIRED FOUNDATION COURSES

- Introduction to Gender, Women's & Sexuality Studies
- Introduction to LGBTQ+ Studies
- Queer Theory

INTERMEDIATE COURSES (CHOOSE ONE)

- Gender, Representation & Popular Culture
- Gender, Health & Marginalization
- Bodies, Socialization & Culture
- Topics: Issues in Gender
- Transnational Feminisms
- Sex, Sexuality & Communication

Art by: Kenal Louis

ewu.edu/gwss

EASTERN
WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY